

Journal #1 - Reflection

Which short story have you most enjoyed so far? Why? How does this stand in comparison with your past reading experiences? Is it different/the same? How?

This paper should be 2 -3 pages (this means more than just 1 or 2 lines on the 2nd page!!!!)

You should use at least 2 different terms that we have discussed so far in the semester. This should be part of the “why” in your journal. For example: Do you connect with the character? setting? point of view? Do you enjoy the use of symbol?

You should use at least 2 quotes from the story that illustrates the term you have chosen.

Journal #1 Rubric

	A	B	C	D/F
Length	2-3 full pages	2-3 full pages	> 2 pages	> 2 pages
Quotes and content	2 quotes are used in the paper. The student explains which parts of the quotes she/he believes demonstrates her position. The student examines the quote.	2 quotes are used in the paper, which the student connects to her reasoning, but she does not examine the quotes carefully.	> 2 quotes Some explanation, but little examination.	> 1 quote Dropped in with little to no explanation or examination
Grammar	Little to no grammar or spelling errors	a fair amount of spelling and grammar errors	a fair amount of spelling and grammar errors	Frequent spelling and grammar errors