

Journal #3 - Hero's Journey

Why do you think Kingston placed the story of Brave Orchid right after her imaginary life as a warrior? What do you think the significance is? How are the stories similar? How are they different? Use close reading skills in order to more fully engage the text. Notice small details about the character, plot, point of view, setting, or themes of the chapters.

Answer the questions above in 2-3 double spaced pages. Begin your paper with a short paragraph that clearly lists what themes/similarities you saw while reading. Make sure that each of your following paragraphs discuss one aspect of the themes/similarities. Use one quote per paragraph and show me why the quote supports your evidence. Take the quote apart.

Rubric

	A - 100-90	B 89-80	C 79-70	D/F 69—
Organization 30%	2-3 full double-spaced pages. Times New Roman Font. 1st paragraph clearly introduces the rest of the paper.	2-3 full double-spaced pages. Times New Roman Font. 1st paragraph introduces the themes, though not clearly	<2 full double spaced pages. Times New Roman Font. 1st paragraph does not introduce themes.	<2 pages. No organizational sense of paragraphs.
Textual Material 30%	The student has engaged with the textual material with great detail and analysis	The student has engaged the textual material with some detail and slight analysis	The student has barely engaged the text, but merely dropped quotes into paragraphs.	The student has done little to no engagement with the text
Argument 30%	The student clearly and succinctly explains how the text relates to the themes discussed, how it works, and why it is important.	The student clearly presents the text, but does not connect it well with the themes or explain exactly why it is important.	The student connects the text only in part to the themes and does not explain the importance of it.	There is no connection of theme to the text or its importance.
Grammar 10%	Little to no grammar or spelling errors. The references are at the bottom of the page.	a fair amount of spelling and grammar errors. The references are at the bottom of the page.	a fair amount of spelling and grammar errors. Some references are at the bottom of the page.	Frequent spelling and grammar errors. There are no references.